WIBC is currently comprised of nearly 3 million members living in the United States, Canada and on U.S. military bases abroad. These members compete in more than 120,000 leagues, and belong to more than 2,700 state and local women's bowling associations.

To completely serve its members and the sport, the Women's International Bowling Congress also operates in close cooperation with several other bowling and sports organizations.

The American Bowling Congress

The American Bowling Congress is a bowling organization comprised of more than 3 million men who live in the United States, Canada and on U.S. military bases abroad.

ABC provides it members with essentially the same services and programs WIBC provides its members.

ABC and WIBC issue and regulate bowling center certificates; determine and monitor equipment specifications; research and test the interaction of bowling balls, pins, lane surfaces and lane dressings; and will conduct the WIBC/ABC National Mixed Championships tournament.

The Young American Bowling Alliance

The Young American Bowling Alliance is a bowling organization comprised of 600,000 U.S. and Canadian youth.

WIBC is one of several YABA founders.

WIBC and its members support YABA's In-School Bowling Program by collecting pennies through WIBC's Penny Pal Program.

The In-School Bowling Program introduces bowling to young children, who with some guidance may become youth and adult league bowlers. WIBC also conducts the Women's National Intercollegiate Championships, in which YABA Collegiate and Campus Division bowlers compete.

The United States Tenpin Bowling Federation

The United States Tenpin Bowling Federation is the national governing body for bowling in the United States.

The USTBF operates exclusively for the advancement of national and international amateur bowling competitions. The USTBF is a U.S. Olympic Committee member, and it decides all eligibility and participation matters for international competitions. The organization also conducts the TEAM USA Bowling Tournament to select the U.S. national bowling team, which is called TEAM USA.

WIBC is a USTBF founding member and five WIBC appointees serve on the USTBF 10-member board of trustees. WIBC First Vice President Joyce Deitch serves as USTBF president.

National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum

Since 1984, the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum in St. Louis has preserved bowling's history and positive impact on society.

The WIBC Hall of Fame, which recognizes women for outstanding superior bowling performance and meritorious service, is located in the NBHF/M.

WIBC helped found the NBHF/M, and encourages its members to make contributions and participate in fund-raising events. These fund-raising events include the Friends Program, Association All-Star Program and the NBHF/M Budweiser Hall of Fame Tournament. Contributions in tribute to WIBC past President Alberta E. Crowe recently topped $100,000.

National Bowling Council

The National Bowling Council uses promoting, advertising, marketing and educating techniques to communicate bowling's virtues to bowlers, prospective bowlers, and business and industry representatives.

Many of NBC's current projects focus upon retarding bowling's membership decline and retaining new members.

WIBC is a founding NBC member and financial contributor. WIBC also manages and distributes many NBC materials to WIBC members. These materials may include NBC League Meeting videocassettes and manuals, and Make Your Day sales promotion kits.

The Women's Sports Foundation

The Women's Sports Foundation operates to promote and enhance sport experiences for girls and women.

As the largest women's sports organization in the world, WIBC is a proud WSF member and enthusiastically supports its efforts. WIBC also nominates its outstanding athletes for many WSF honors.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

GLADYS M. BANKER, WIBC PRESIDENT.

Challenge.

The 1989-90 bowling season presented many challenges and opportunities for the Women's International Bowling Congress.

WIBC officers, directors, life member, staff members and members assertively and competently rose to meet these challenges and opportunities. I applaud their dedicated and enthusiastic efforts.

One of WIBC's most prominent challenges is to check the trend in declining membership. For the first time since the 1969-70 bowling season, WIBC membership figures for the 1989-90 bowling season fell below the 3 million mark. This occurrence did not induce alarm, rather it induced decisive action.

During the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC developed and instituted two new programs to address the membership decline.

The programs—the WIBC Area Recruitment Coordinator Program and WIBC Future Leaders Program—have met success. The Area Recruitment Coordinator Program has strengthened and organized new sanctioned bowling leagues, and the Future Leaders Program has further instilled dedication and cooperation in new local women's bowling association leaders.

I am positive more successes are yet to come. I am also positive there is more work to do.

I and other WIBC leaders encourage veteran WIBC members to act as bowling mentors to new WIBC members. Show these new members you care. Tell them and demonstrate to them they make a positive difference in the future of our sport and our organization. And do not forget to believe it yourself. Remember, a sanctioned bowler is a committed athlete. A committed WIBC member. A committed person concerned about the integrity of our sport.

I thank WIBC members and delegates for the dues increase. The increase has generated additional revenue which has allowed WIBC to strengthen its financial future, reinstate several membership services, revise current existing programs and implement some new ones.

I also thank WIBC delegates for electing me president. Throughout the next three years, I pledge to work hard for WIBC; all WIBC members; and for the great sport of American tenpins, which I love so much.

Gladys M. Banker

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY-TREASURER'S MESSAGE

Financial stability and improved membership service.

The Women's International Bowling Congress has achieved these two goals as a result of the $1 WIBC membership dues increase, which became effective with the 1989-90 bowling season.

We thank WIBC delegates and members for passing the dues increase legislation at the 1989 WIBC Annual Meeting in Bismarck, N.D. I know WIBC officers, directors and staff members share my gratitude.

The additional dues revenue has enabled WIBC to prudently invest for the future, reinstate discontinued membership services, institute innovative membership services and revise existing ones.

We are very pleased WIBC could once again produce and distribute the WIBC Playing Rules Book for 1989-90 team captains. WIBC believes organizing and enforcing uniform rules is one of its most important responsibilities.

The curtailment of this membership service during WIBC's financial difficulties generated the most regret among WIBC officers, directors and staff members. It also generated the most comments from WIBC members.

As many of you already know, the additional dues revenue has also enabled WIBC to reinstate the WIBC High Average Award, Bowling Booster Program and WIBC Championship Tournament emblem distribution. WIBC members overwhelmingly report they appreciate these reinstated services and WIBC's newest innovative communications medium: videocassettes.

During the past season, WIBC has produced several VHS videos that women's bowling associations may borrow upon request. Stay tuned, WIBC plans to expand its videocassette library in future bowling seasons. Our organization wanted to use this new technology for some time, but was financially unable to do so until the dues increase.

As announced at the 1990 WIBC Annual Meeting, I am retiring Oct. 1, 1991, as executive secretary-treasurer of the world's largest women's sports organization.

Throughout my many years of service, I have met and worked with thousands of talented, intelligent and dedicated individuals who love the sport of bowling. I applaud, appreciate and greatly respect their wide-reaching efforts. Without these efforts, WIBC would not be the impressive sports organization that it is today.

RECRUITING AND RETAINING MEMBERS

During the 1989-90 bowling season, the Women's International Bowling Congress designed and launched two new national programs to recruit and retain WIBC members.

The national programs are the WIBC Area Recruitment Coordinator Program and the WIBC Future Leaders Program.

WIBC PRESIDENT GLADYS M. BANKER AND WIBC BOARD AND STAFF MEMBERS CONDUCTED VALUABLE TRAINING SEMINARS DURING THE AREA RECRUITMENT COORDINATOR WORKSHOP.

WIBC Area Recruitment Coordinator Program

The WIBC Area Recruitment Coordinator Program was designed to attract new league bowlers to WIBC membership rolls; foster closer membership and recruitment relationships between bowling center proprietors and local women's bowling associations; and restore pride, dedication and loyalty to WIBC, and state and local women's bowling associations.

WIBC President Gladys M. Banker appointed 55 volunteer area recruitment coordinators, one from each U.S. state and five Canadian provinces, to implement the program. ARCs are responsible for motivating, educating and assisting local women's bowling associations, bowling councils and bowling center proprietors in operating promotions to recruit new league bowlers.

WIBC instructed ARCs how to effectively lead others and use existing WIBC promotional materials at a four-day workshop—held Nov. 2 to 5, 1989—at Bowling Headquarters in Greendale, Wis.

ARCs often teach bowling groups how to use the Bring-A-Friend Kit, Exhibit Kit, Launch-A-League Kit and Bowling Booster Program. ARCs also help bowling groups design and develop other promotional materials to suit their local and state needs.

WIBC decided to implement the Area Recruitment Coordinator Program nationwide, after its 1988-89 pilot program met success. The pilot program was comprised of five appointed ARCs who led pilot recruitment projects in St. Louis; Milwaukee; Cleveland; Binghamton-Johnson City-Endicott, N.Y.; Indianapolis; and Oklahoma City.

WIBC Future Leaders Program

WIBC launched its first national program to retain members, titled the WIBC Future Leaders Program, during the 1989-90 bowling season.

The Future Leaders Program was designed to identify and select local women's bowling association board members who have served less than five years; and to educate these women about leadership skills and WIBC.

WIBC intends program participants to return to their local women's bowling associations and re-energize them with enthusiasm, and a new understanding of WIBC and its operations.

Seventy-three local women's bowling association leaders attended the first Future Leaders Program held July 26 to 29, 1990, at Bowling Headquarters in Greendale, Wis., and the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum in St. Louis.

Program members attended several informational lectures and presentations; participated in motivational workshops and training sessions; and received comprehensive tours of Bowling Headquarters and the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

WIBC will conduct its second Future Leaders Program June 20 to 23, 1991.

MEETING BOWLERS' CURRENT AND FUTURE NEEDS .....

The Women's International Bowling Congress recently designed, redesigned and implemented several WIBC programs and services to better meet its members current and future needs.

These programs and services include WIBC videos, WIBC television commercials, WIBC Bowling Booster Program, Woman Bowler magazine and the WIBC logo.

WIBC Videos

During the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC replaced its outdated film library with a VHS videocassette library.

The updated library contains videocassettes produced by WIBC, the National Bowling Council and the BVL Fund.

WIBC produced the "1990 WIBC Annual Meeting," "Meeting of the Month," "Why Sanction" and "Shop 'Til You Drop" videocassettes. NBC produced the "League Meeting" and "The Perfect Game" videocassettes; and BVL Fund produced the "They Continue to Serve: The BVL Fund Story" videocassette.

The WIBC video library also provides several educational and instructional videos distributed by the Tech-Ed Publishing Company. These videos include "Bowling with Nelson Burton Jr.," "Going for 300" and "Pro's Guide to Better Bowling, Volume 1."

Women's bowling associations, WIBC members and WIBC-sanctioned leagues may borrow videocassettes upon written request. WIBC fills videocassette requests on a first-come, first-served basis.

WIBC Television Commercials

WIBC designed and produced two animated television commercials during the 1989-90 bowling season.

The 30-second commericals—the first WIBC has produced—feature a fun-loving, animated spokesball

In the first commercial, the animated spokesball tells viewers WIBC makes bowling competitive and fun. In the second commercial, the spokesball explains bowling's benefits and the importance of bowling in WIBC-sanctioned leagues.

WIBC designed the commercials to increase WIBC's name recognition, improve its image, introduce league bowling to non-league bowlers and reinforce league bowling ideas to current league bowlers.

WIBC also hopes the commercials will help stabilize its 10-year membership decline.

WIBC will run the commercials during the 1990-91 bowling season in seven cities on three cable-television stations. WIBC will also run the commercials during national ESPN telecasts of the Ladies Pro Bowlers Tour.

WIBC debuted the first commercial to delegates attending the 1990 WIBC Annual Meeting in Tampa, Fla.

WIBC Bowling Booster Program

During the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC reinstituted its WIBC Bowling Booster Program.

The program sells small bowling-related items at cost to bowling center proprietors, and local and state women's bowling associations. Proprietors and associations often distribute Bowling Booster items at tournaments, banquets, leagues, league meetings and workshops.

Bowling Booster items include shoelaces, self-adhesive notepads and pencils, which are imprinted with WIBC slogans and logos.

From April 1, 1990, to July 31, 1990, more than 31,000 pencils, 25,000 shoelaces and 18,000 notepads were sold.

WIBC BOWLING BOOSTER PROGRAM ITEMS.

Woman Bowler Magazine

Woman Bowler magazine—WIBC's official publication—updated its appearance and editorial content beginning with the 1989 August/September issue.

WIBC redesigned the magazine to improve its service to members—without increasing its costs.

The magazine's visual changes include a new triangular logo, different typestyles, use of color graphics and photographs, and modified page layouts of two and four columns.

THE UPDATED WOMAN BOWLER'S PREMIRE ISSUE.

Woman Bowler's editorial changes include new story columns tailored to bowling's many audiences and interests. Columns address readers' letters, local and state women's bowling association celebrations, rule questions, youth bowling news, amateur and professional bowling tips, WIBC information notes, bowling viewpoints, bowling center proprietor news, bowling accomplishments and tournament statistics.

Readers, subscribers and advertisers report they enjoy the magazine's new format; and paid subscriptions have increased by approximately 9 percent.

To help promote the magazine, WIBC produced Woman Bowler pins to award people who subscribe for three years or more.

WIBC Logo

WIBC developed and unveiled a new WIBC logo during the 1989-90 bowling season.

The logo—which was presented to more than 3,000 delegates at the 1990 WIBC Annual Meeting in Tampa, Fla.—was designed by Promo Nova, Inc., of Milwaukee.

The logo's design symbolizes WIBC's dedicated commitment to the future as it moves toward its 75th anniversary.

The logo design also accommodates a 75th anniversary embellishment, which includes WIBC's anniversary slogan. The embellishment and slogan—"Proud of Our Past—Prepared for the Future"—will only adorn the logo during WIBC's anniversary 1991-92 bowling season.

SERVING BOWLING'S TECHNICAL CONCERNS

Since August 1988, the Women's International Bowling Congress has been a full and equal partner with the American Bowling Congress in serving bowling's technical concerns.

These concerns involve researching the System of Bowling, evaluating lane dressing reports, inspecting and certifying bowling lanes, and conducting Certified Lane Inspector Workshops.

Researching System of Bowling

The WIBC/ABC Equipment Specifications Committee and department continued researching the System of Bowling during the 1989-90 bowling season.

The System of Bowling refers to the interaction of bowling balls, pins, lane surfaces and lane dressing patterns.

The committee and department recently focused its energies on researching bowling lane dressing patterns and their affects on the maximum hook capabilities of bowling balls.

The Equipment Specifications Committee uses research of this type to develop specifications and proposed amendments to regulate bowling pins, balls and lane surfaces.

Delegates attending the 1990 WIBC and ABC annual meetings awarded the committee full authority for these three elements of the System of Bowling.

Pre-1990 legislation only empowered the committee to establish controls and specifications for bowling pins and some bowling ball aspects. The fourth element, bowling lane dressing patterns, remains under the jurisdiction of WIBC and ABC delegates.

WIBC and the Equipment Specifications Committee intend the new and comprehensive controls and specifications to ensure bowling's continued integrity as a sport of skill.

CERTIFIED LANE INSPECTORS USE TAPE PICK-UP DEVICES TO DETERMINE LANE DRESSING PATTERNS.

Evaluating Lane Dressing Reports

The WIBC/ABC lane dressing evaluation department reviews all lane dressing inspection reports for compliance with WIBC/ABC specifications; reviews physical measurements required for high-score award inspections; and approves high-score award inspections.

The department processed more than 28,000 lane dressing inspection reports during the 1989-90 bowling season.

Alternative 1 reports comprised approximately 15 percent of these total reports and Alternative 2 reports comprised the remainder. The department approved 77 percent of all Alternative 1 and 84 percent of all Alternative 2 reports.

The department also processed 1,000 verification tape readings and 300 lane dressing samples for additive concentration compliances during the 1989-90 bowling season.

Certifying Bowling Lanes

The WIBC/ABC certification department certified 8,005 bowling centers and 152,923 bowling lanes during the 1989-90 bowling season.

These season figures include 84 new bowling centers with 1,900 total bowling lanes; 42 previously uncertified bowling centers with 446 total lanes; 13 bowling centers with 390 total added lanes; and six bowling centers with 146 total replaced lanes.

According to the certification department, the 1989-90 figures are only slightly lower than the previous season's figures of 8,103 bowling centers and 153,403 bowling lanes.

Also during the 1989-90 season, the department designed and implemented a new bowling center certification application. The department will begin using the application in the 1990-91 season.

The new form will reduce time previously needed for processing applications and issuing bowling center certificates.

Conducting Certified Lane Inspector Workshops

During the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC and ABC jointly conducted 120 Certified Lane Inspector Workshops. The Certification/CLIW department reports nearly 50 percent of all workshop attendees were women.

Certified Lane Inspector Workshops train women and men to inspect bowling center lanes. These inspections ensure uniform and consistent lane conditions from bowling center to bowling center.

CLIWs are divided into two separate sessions. The first session addresses certification inspections, and the second addresses lane dressing distribution inspections.

The sessions —which are taught in the classroom and on bowling lanes—provide detailed understandings of lane construction and maintenance, certification tools and procedures, lane dressing inspections, high-score award inspections, and other safety and public relations procedures.

Also during the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC and ABC jointly produced a CLIW videocassette. The 31-minute videocassette instructs viewers how to conduct certified lane inspections. The video was written for two audiences: those who have not attended CLIWs; and those who have attended, but need refresher courses.

The VHS videocassettes are available for rent or purchase.

CLIW STUDENTS RECEIVE DETAILED INSTRUCTION BOTH ON THE BOWLING LANES AND IN THE CLASSROOM.

PROVIDING NEW BOWLING COMPETITIONS

The Women's International Bowling Congress announced during the 1989-90 bowling season it would inaugurate two new national bowling competitions in 1991.

The national competitions are the WIBC Queens Pro-Am Tournament and the WIBC/ American Bowling Congress National Mixed Championships.

Columbia 300/WIBC Queens Pro-Am Tournament

The Columbia 300/WIBC Queens Pro-Am Tournament will provide exciting competition for 60 top professional women bowlers, and amateur men and women bowlers.

All tournament entrants will bowl one, three-game series. Professional bowlers will bowl one game with three different groups of amateur bowlers.

The top-60 professional bowlers, based on Ladies Pro Bowlers Tour point standings, will be invited to compete in the pro-am tournament. WIBC will then provide these 60 professional bowlers with secured spots in the WIBC Queens Tournament.

WIBC will inaugurate the tournament May 11, 1991, at May City Bowling Center in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Entry fees will be $75.

Columbia 300 will sponsor the tournament. All entrants will receive a Columbia Yellow Dot bowling ball engraved with the WIBC Queens Tournament insignia.

WIBC/ABC National Mixed Championships

The WIBC/ABC National Mixed Championships will provide the first national mixed tournament for amateur women and men who are WIBC and ABC members.

The tournament will feature a four-player team event, doubles event, and optional all events. Four-player teams will be comprised of two women and two men, and doubles teams will be comprised of one woman and one man.

The tournament will be held June 15 to 30, 1991, at Tropicana Lanes in St. Louis. Entry fees will be $20 per person per event and $5 per person for optional all events.

Mixed league competitions comprise the majority of leagues sanctioned by WIBC and ABC. WIBC and ABC developed the national mixed tournament so their members, who locally compete in mixed leagues, could nationally compete in mixed tournament competition.

HONORING BOWLERS OF DISTINCTION

Each bowling season, the Women's International Bowling Congress honors thousands of women for their distinguished achievements both on and off the bowling lanes.

These honors include WIBC bowling achievement awards, WIBC Hall of Fame inductions, and the Helen Baker Award and Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow Award. The 1989-90 bowling season also marked the first time WIBC, through Woman Bowler magazine, honored a Bowler of the Decade.

WIBC Bowling Achievement Awards

Each year, one in every five WIBC members receives an award acknowledging her outstanding bowling performance These awards include WIBC awards; æague awards; senior league awards; and local, state and provincial women's bowling association tournament awards.

During the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC awarded more than 148,000 awards to its nearly 3 million members.

Fifteen women earned 800 Series Awards during the 1989-90 bowling season. Two of these 15 women bowled two 800 series and the remainder bowled one 800 series. Donna Adamek of Victorville, Calif., rolled the season's highest series—an 847. Adamek's series ties as the fourth highest tournament series in WIBC history.

Two hundred and nine WIBC members earned 300 Game Awards when they bowled one or more 300 games. Sixteen women bowled more than one perfect game; and Leanne Barrette of Oklahoma City earned top honors by bowling six.

Regi Jonak of St. Peters, Mo., earned WIBC's High Average Award by accumulating a 227 season average. Jonak's average ties as the fourth highest in WIBC history.

WIBC also distributed 2,878 75 Pins Over Average Awards and 1,397 125 Pins Over Average Awards to senior bowlers.

PAM BUCKNER ADDRESSES 1990 WIBC ANNUAL MEETING DELEGATES AFTER HER INDUCTION INTO THE WIBC HALL OF FAME.

WIBC Hall of Fame Inductions

WIBC inducted three women into the WIBC Hall of Fame at the 1990 WIBC Annual Meeting in Tampa, Fla. The three inductions brought the hall's total number of inductions to 100 women—65 inductions for superior performance and 35 for meritrious service.

WIBC inducted Dorothy Wilkinson of Phoenix, Ariz., and Pam Buckner of Reno, Nev., for Superior Performance; and Gertrude Finke of Minneapolis for Meritorious Service.

Wilkinson—who began bowling in 1940—has earned several local, state, national and international titles during her amateur career.

Wilkinson gained national recognition when she defeated WIBC Hall of Famer Marion Ladewig by only five pins to win the 1962 WIBC Queens Tournament title, and when she rolled a 653 three-game series to win the 1963 WIBC Championship Tournament singles event title.

She gained international attention when she won four medals in the 1963 Federation Internationale des Quilleurs World Championships. Wilkinson won gold medals in the doubles and four-player European-style events, a silver medal in the four-player American-style event and a bronze medal in the overall individual event.

Wilkinson also has eight Arizona Women's Bowling Association titles, two Phoenix Women's Bowling Association Queens titles and 20 Phoenix Women's Bowling Association crowns to her credit.

In honor of her sports achievements, Wilkinson also has been inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame, and four local and state halls of fame.

Buckner—throughout her 26-year bowling career—has also earned many bowling honors.

The former professional bowler has earned 22 professional titles, including the 1976 WIBC Queens Tournament title and 16 Western Women Professional Bowlers crowns. She has bowled five sanctioned 300 games, and has secured career-high achievments of a 794 three-game series and a 215 league season average.

Woman Bowler magazine named Buckner a 1977 and 1981 All-American Team member, and the Western Women Professional Bowlers organization named her Bowler of the Year in 1980.

Buckner, a left-hander, was inducted into the Nevada Women's Bowling Association and Reno-Sparks-Herlong Women's Bowling Association halls of fame in 1985.

Since 1949, Finke has served WIBC on the local, state and national levels.

Finke began serving bowling on the local level when she joined the Minneapolis Women's Bowling Association in 1949.

She quickly advanced to the Minnesota Women's Bowling Association and organized 51 local women's bowling associations during a two-year period. Finke is also credited with organizing the Minnesota Young American Bowling Alliance and the first Minnesota Junior Bowling Congress Tournament.

She has served as the Minnesota Women's Bowling Association's director, vice president, president and secretary. Finke continues to serve as a Minnesota Young American Bowling Alliance director.

On the national level, Finke has served on the WIBC Nominating Committee, WIBC President's Report Committee and the American Junior Bowling Congress Board of Directors.

WIBC Helen Baker Award

WIBC instituted the WIBC Helen Baker Award during the 1989-90 bowling season.

The award—named for WIBC Life Member and past President Helen Baker—acknowledges women who have demonstrated outstanding leadership, and who through their local and state efforts have enabled WIBC to effectively operate on the national level.

Helen Baker made the award's first presentation to Marcy Bayne of Calais, Vt., at the 1990 WIBC Annual Meeting in Tampa, Fla.

Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow Award

At the time of the Annual Meeting, Everding carried a 198 bowling average and secured the distinction of being Colorado's first junior bowler to roll a perfect game.

In addition to the award, WIBC presented Everding with a $1,000 scholarship.

Woman Bowler of the Decade

Woman Bowler magazine — the official WIBC publication—named Lisa Wagner of Palmetto, Fla., the 1980s Bowler of the Decade.

Magazine readers selected Wagner by a special Bowler of the Decade ballot.

MANY SCHOOL-AGE CHILDREN ARE INTRODUCED TO BOWLING THROUGH THE IN-SCHOOL BOWLING PROGRAM.

WIBC Penny Pal Program

Leagues, and local and state women's bowling associations collected more than $120,000 for the WIBC Penny Pal Program during the 1988-89 bowling season.

Contributions generated by the Penny Pal Program are used to help finance WIBC's share of operating expenses for the In-School Bowling Program.

The In-School Bowling Program introduces bowling to young children, who with some guidance may become youth and adult league bowlers. The In-School Bowling Program materials—which include publications and carpet bowling kits—have been designed so educators, bowling center proprietors, parents and volunteers can easily and effectively use them.

Previous Penny Pal contributions have also helped finance the production of new bowling-related instructional materials. These materials were introduced into 44,000 U.S. elementary schools during the 1989-90 bowling season. The materials use bowling and BIF—the Young American Bowling Alliance mascot—to teach reading, math and social skills.

The National Bowling Council estimates more than 5 million children have been introduced to the new instructional materials, and more than 6,000 elementary educators have reported positive experiences from using them.

National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum

Each bowling season, WIBC members and local and state women's bowling associations donate thousands of hours and dollars in support of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum in St. Louis.

The NBHF/M has the distinction of being one of only two official WIBC charities. The second WIBC charity is the BVL Fund.

Women's bowling associations and WIBC members help the NBHF/M in many different ways.

During the 1989-90 bowling season, local women's bowling associations contributed more than $29,000 and state women's bowling associations contributed more than $53,000 in hall donations and tributes. Many of these donations were made in honor of WIBC past president Alberta E. Crowe. On Oct. 2, 1989, total tributes to the past WIBC leader surpassed $100,000.

In honor of this tribute achievement, the NBHF/M dedicated a circular NBHF/M presentation gallery the "Alberta E. Crowe New Stars Rotunda." The rotunda, which is located near the WIBC and American Bowling Congress halls of fame, displays portraits and plaques of recent WIBC and ABC halls of fame inductees.

To honor and recognize local and state women's bowling associations for their outstanding NBHF/M contributions, the NBHF/M has created the Association All-Star Program.

The program, which was instituted during the 1989-90 bowling season, provides recognition for women's bowling associations surpassing specific donation levels. These levels are: $1,000 for local women's bowling associations, $2,500 for state women's bowling associations, and 50 cents per member for either local or state women's bowling associations.

The program ranks women's bowling associations by amount contributed. This ranking often generates healthy competition between associations.

The Nassau County (N.Y.) Women's Bowling Association, California Women's Bowling Association and Vicksburg (Miss.) Women's Bowling Association won top All-Star Program honors for their 1989-90 efforts.

Nassau County Women's Bowling Association contributed $2,065, California Women's Bowling Association donated $10,335.50 and Vicksburg Women's Bowling Association collected $4.93 per member.

During the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC members also helped raise more than $125,000 for the NBHF/M through qualifying competitions for the Budweiser Hall of Fame Tournament.

The Budweiser Hall of Fame Tournament is an annual, national tournament comprised of WIBC Hall of Fame members, ABC Hall of Fame members, and U.S. and Canadian amateur bowlers.

WIBC members raise money by paying entry fees to compete in the tournament's local qualifying competitions. The local competitions select the national tournament's 12 amateur bowlers. The NBHF/M receives 50 percent of each local entrant's $1 entry fee.

To date, local qualifying competitions have raised more than $1.3 million for the NBHF/M.

BVL Fund

For the fifth consecutive bowling season, women's bowling associations and other bowling groups raised more than $1 million for the BVL Fund.

BVL Fund records indicate $1,059,516.78 were donated and collected during the 1988-89 bowling season.

The BVL Fund finances entertainment events, celebrity visits, outreach center grants, writing project grants, television purchases, bowling equipment purchases and repairs, contribution award programs, Veterans Administration/BVL Tournaments and other grants for U.S. veterans hospitalized in VA Medical Centers.

The BVL Fund is one of only two WIBC official charities. The second is the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum in St. Louis.

The BVL Fund recognizes and presents awards to women's bowling associations who distinguish themselves in BVL fund-raising efforts. For their stellar 1988-89 efforts, the BVL Fund recognized several local and state women's bowling associations at the 1990 WIBC Annual Meeting in Tampa, Fla. (see box).

COMPETING IN TOURNAMENTS

During the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC members tested their bowling skills in local, state, national and international bowling competitions.

TEAM USA Bowling Tournament National Finals

Linda Graham of Des Moines, Iowa, and Adam Apo of Mililani, Hawaii, earned the titles of 1989 National Amateur Champions at the 1989 TEAM USA Bowling Tournament National Finals.

The national finals — held Aug. 15 to 19, 1989, in Milwaukee — also selected the 12 athletes who would represent the United States as 1990 TEAM USA members.

Graham—who began the stepladder finals in the No. 3 position—was deemed National Amateur Champion when she defeated No. 1 positioned Cathy Almeida of Blackwood, N.J., 201 to 192, in the championship match.

Graham earned her championship match berth by defeating No. 2 positioned Maureen Webb of North Andover, Mass., 226 to 183, in the women's first stepladder match.

Apo—who began the stepladder finals in the No. 2 position—secured the National Amateur Champion title when he defeated No. 1 positioned Tony Stipcak Jr. of Redford, Mich., 194 to 177.

Apo earned the right to face Stipcak in the championship match when he defeated Marc Skier of Denver, 234 to 229, in the men's opening stepladder match.

1990 TEAM USA members, who were selected from a field of 74 national finalists, were: Graham; Almeida; Webb; Lynda Norry, San Jose, Calif.; Mandy Wilson, Dayton, Ohio; Linda Kelly, Dayton, Ohio; Apo; Stipcak; Skier; Rod McLean, Phoenix, Ariz.; Jon Juneau, Baton Rouge, La.; and Darold Meisel, Musekgo, Wis.

Graham, Webb, Norry, Kelly and Meisel were also members of previous TEAM USA teams.

PATTY ANN, 1989 AMF BOWLING WORLD CUP CHAMPION.

AMF Bowling World Cup

Patty Ann of Appleton, Wis., won the 25th AMF Bowling World Cup held Dec. 11 to 17, 1989, in Dublin, Ireland.

Ann—the 1988 National Amateur Champion—earned her title by defeating Martina Beckel of West Germany, 202 to 191, in the tournament's championship match. The right-hander averaged 209 in preceding match-play competition to earn the No. 1 position in the stepladder finals.

Ann is only the third U.S. woman to win the Bowling World Cup title since the women's division was added in 1972. Lucy Giovinco of Tampa, Fla., and Linda Kelly of Dayton, Ohio, won Bowling World Cup titles in 1976 and 1988, respectively.

Ann's 1989 victory also provides the United States with back-to-back title honors. Only Australia and the Philippines have also earned back-to-back honors.

1988 National Amateur Champion Darold Meisel of Muskego, Wis., finished fourth in the men's division.

WIBC Championship Tournament

The WIBC Championship Tournament—the world's largest sports participation event for women—was held April 5 to July 4, 1990, in Tampa, Fla.

The 71st tournament, only the third to be held in Florida, holds distinction for several reasons.

The 1990 tournament ranks as the third longest with 91 days, third largest with 10,544 five-woman teams and third richest with $1,113,046 in prize money.

The 1990 tournament also marks the 50th year of participation for Nellie Pestinger of Wichita, Kan. Pestinger, who is only the ninth woman to compete in 50 or more WIBC Championship Tournaments, began participating in 1936. Since 1936, Pestinger participated every year with the exception of 1965 and the World War II years when tournaments were not held.

Open Division bowler Carol Norman of Ardmore, Okla., also helped the 1990 Championship Tournament earn distinction.

Norman bowled a record-tying 1,984 to win the WIBC Championship Tournament title in all events. She earned her nine-game series May 11 and 12 with a

CAROL NORMAN, 1990 WIBC CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT ALL EVENTS CHAMPION AND CO-RECORD HOLDER.

692 team-event series, 599 doubles-event series and a 693 singles-event series. Norman's score tied a 1970 all-events record set by WIBC Hall of Famer Dorothy Fothergill of Lincoln, R.I.

For her impressive effort, Norman earned $1,500 and a championship pendant.

The 1990 Championship Tournament also marks the sixth time two individual athletes have shared a championship title.

Professional bowlers Paula Carter of Miami, and Dana Miller-Mackie of Albuquerque, N.M., both rolled a 705 three-game series May 11 to earn the WIBC Championship Tournament title in the singles event.

Carter's series was tallied on games of 255, 211 and 239; and Miller-Mackie's series came only hours later on games of 246, 248 and 211.

Carter and Miller-Mackie each received $2,900 and a championship pendant for their efforts.

Open Division doubles partners Margi Melvin of New Castle, Del., and Ann Meconahey of Bear, Del., bowled a near-record 1,323 series April 20 to earn the WIBC Championship Tournament title in the doubles event.

Melvin and Mechonahey's pinfall was only five pins short of the 1,328 record series bowled in 1987 by doubles partners Laura Grant of Norwalk, Conn., and Robin Romeo of Van Nuys, Calif.

Melvin and Meconahey—whose doubles series was scored on games of 436, 449 and 438—nearly matched each other's individual scores. Melvin's 658 series was bowled on games of 223, 212 and 223; and Mechonahey's 665 series was bowled on games of 213, 237 and 215.

In addition to their title, the pair earned $2,200 and championship medals.

R.A.T.'s Team of Lakeland, Fla., rolled a 2,985 team series May 10 to win the WIBC Championship Tournament title in the team event.

The five-woman team rolled its title-winning series on team games of 971, 1,055 and 959; with its 1,055 team game also ranking as the tournament's highest.

R.A.T.'s Team members were: Pat Culpepper, Rita Wright, Mary Ellen Wasley, Mary Ann Burney and Pam Sprow.

The team received $4,700 and championship pendants for its title-winning achievement.

Women's National Intercollegiate Championships

Linda Woods of Hudson, Fla., won the 29th Women's National Intercollegiate Championships April 9, 1990, at Regal Bowling Lanes in Tampa, Fla.

Woods, a 20-year-old student at the University of Florida, won the tournament's title with record-setting style.

Her flawless 8-0 match-play record made her the competition's first undefeated match-play champion, and her 1,812 scratch and 2,052 grand total easily bettered 1987 records set by Donna DiTrani of Wichita State University. DiTrani's scores were 1,698 scratch and 1,908 grand total.

For her tournament-winning effort, Woods received the prestigious Marion Ladewig trophy, which symbolizes excellence in collegiate bowling competition.

In other tournament competition, freshmen Jana Ohlendorf of Central Missouri State and Amy Hickman of the University of Florida worked together to win the doubles event. The duo earned a 1,126 six-game tally—with Ohlendorf contributing a 599 series—to narrowly outscore another twosome by only four pins.

Senior Tracie Harook of Indiana State, who was making her third tournament appearance, won the singles event competition. Harook captured the event by rolling a 668 three-game series, which is the third highest series in tournament history.

National Collegiate Bowling Championships

The Wichita State University women's team captured its fifth National Collegiate Bowling Championships title April 28, 1990, at Valley Lanes in Beaverton, Ore.

The No. 3 positioned WSU Lady Shockers narrowly defeated the No. 1 positioned West Texas State University Lady Buffaloes, 390 to 382, in the championship two-game Baker match.

The Lady Shockers earned their berth in the championship match by defeating the No. 2 positioned Lady Sycamores of Indiana State University, 356 to 309.

In 11 tournament appearances, the WSU Lady Shockers have earned an unprecedented five titles. They won titles in 1990, 1986, 1978, 1977 and 1975. The WTSU women's team trails the Lady Shockers with four titles earned in 1988, 1987, 1985 and 1983.

The 1990 Lady Shockers were: Leslie Beamish, Holly Hampe, Geri Pohl, Lisa Skibinski and Sue Winters. Beamish was also voted the tournament's Most Valuable Player and was elected to the women's division All-Tournament Team.

The remaining All-Tournament Team members were: ISU bowler Harook; and WTSU bowlers Robin Davis, Cathy Dorin and Tammy Turner.

WIBC National Seniors Championships

Four class winners were selected and four records were set in the ninth WIBC National Seniors Championships held May 5 to 6, 1990, in Reno, Nev.

The 1990 tournament featured 169 women from 47 U.S. states and three Canadian provinces competing in four age-based divisions. The tournament marked the first time women from Alaska competed.

The 1990 WIBC National Seniors Champions were: Margaret Hunter, South Ogden, Utah, 657, Class A; Faye Kessel, Marion, Ill., 646, Class B; June Leslie, Madoc, Ontario, 670, Class C; and Lorie Perry, Tucson, Ariz., 717, Class D.

Leslie is only the second Canadian bowler to earn a class title.

Hunter, Leslie and Perry also set class records for their three-game handicapped scores. The previous record holders and scores were: Catherine Spence, New York, 629, 1982; Evelyn Dorin, New Jersey, 664, 1986; and Barbara Monetey, Wisconsin, 658, 1983.

1990 Class B bowler Virginia Willie of Fridely, Minn., also set a class record for her three-game, handicapped qualifying score of 712. Marjorie Schreiner of Hays, Kan., set the previous class record of 658 in 1986. Willie's series advanced her to her class's match-play competition where she finished second.

Class A is comprised of bowlers aged 70 years or more; Class B, 65 to 69 years; Class C, 60 to 64 years; and Class D, 50 to 59 years.

The 1990 championships were held in conjunction with the American Bowling Congress Seniors Tournament on lanes constructed for the ABC Championships Tournament.

WIBC Queens Tournament

Amateur Patty Ann of Appleton, Wis., won the 30th WIBC Queens Tournament May 13 to 17, 1990, at Regal Bowling Lanes in Tampa, Fla.

Ann—the 1988 National Amateur Champion—earned the coveted title, $10,000 prize check, tiara and diamond pendant when she defeated Vesma Grinfelds of San Francisco, 207 to 173, in the championship match.

The champion, who began from the No. 3 position, won two semifinal matches before facing the No. 1 positioned Grinfelds. Ann first bettered No. 4 positioned Chele Rutherford of Edgewood, Md., 175 to 140; and then decisively defeated No. 2 positioned Pat Costello of Lantana, Fla., 267 to 169.

Ann's 98-pin victory margin over WIBC Hall of Famer Costello rates as the second greatest victory margin in Queens stepladder finals history, and her impressive 267 score stands as the third highest. Ann accumulated her high semifinal score by rolling seven consecutive strikes from the first frame. She ended her string by leaving a solid 10-pin with her eighth ball.

Grinfelds pocketed $5,500 for her second-place finish; Costello $4,000 for third; Rutherford $3,000 for fourth; and No. 5 positioned Susan George of West Islip, N.Y., $2,500 for fifth.

The tournament is the only bowling competition contested under the double-elimination, match-play format. The tournament's unique format makes its title one of the most difficult to win.

For the third consecutive year, the tournament's stepladder finals were televised live on ESPN.

1990 BUDWEISER HALL OF FAME TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS STEWART SISLER AND WIBC HALL OF FAMER BETTY MORRIS.

Budweiser Hall of Fame Tournament

WIBC Hall of Famer Betty Morris of Stockton, Calif., and amateur Stewart Sisler of Grimsby, Ontario, confidently won the 1990 Budweiser Hall of Fame Tournament held May 21 to 24, 1990, in St. Charles, Mo.

The No. 1 positioned Morris and Sisler easily defeated the No. 2 positioned ABC Hall of Famer George Pappas and amateur Peggy Cianciola of Phoenix, Ariz., 493 to 460, in the championship stepladder match.

Morris—the 1970s Bowler of the Decade—helped clinch the title match with five consecutive strikes. For their efforts, Morris and Sisler shared $15,000, and Pappas and Cianciola shared $10,000.

Pappas and Cianciola earned their title-match berth by narrowly defeating WIBC Hall of Famer Millie Ignizio and amateur Les Dodson of Indianapolis, 435 to 428. Ignizio and Dodson, who began the stepladder finals from the No. 4 position, shared $7,000 for their third-place finish.

Ignizio and Dodson defeated ABC Hall of Famer Dave Soutar and amateur Donna Millman of Gaithersburg, Md., 464 to 409, in the tournament's first stepladder match. Soutar and Millman shared $4,000 for their fourth-place finish.

U.S. Olympic Festival-'90

Two 1990 TEAM USA members had stellar medal-winning performances at the U.S. Olympic Festival-'90 held July 7 to 11, 1990, in Minneapolis.

Lynda Norry of San Jose, Calif., led the West team's effort by winning gold medals in singles, doubles and five-player team events.

Jon Juneau of Baton Rouge, La., became the first bowler to earn medals in all five bowling events. Juneau, representing the South, won a gold medal in the singles and individual match-play events; a silver medal in the doubles event; and a bronze medal in the three-player and five-player team events.

medals: Linda Kelly, Dayton, Ohio; Mandy Wilson, Dayton, Ohio; and Judy Gurney, Omaha, Neb.

Goodwill Games

Bowling made its debut as a sports exhibition at the Goodwill Games in Seattle, July 20-22, 1990.

The exhibition, which was officially titled the 1990 International Tournament of Bowling Champions, was comprised of 16 bowlers representing 15 countries. With the exception of the United States, each country was represented by one individual. 1989 National Amateur Champions Linda Graham of Des Moines, Iowa, and Adam Apo of Mililani, Hawaii, represented the United States.

Kimberly Coote of Great Britain won the women's division competition by defeating Gabi Bagai of Venezuela, 196-156, in the championship match.

Bart-Jan van den Boogaart of the Netherlands won the men's division competition by bettering Fico Perez of Puerto Rico, 207-196.

Graham and Apo, both battling physical injuries, finished in their respective divisions in the 5-6 position.

National Junior Bowling Championships

More than 200 youth bowlers gathered Aug. 16 to 20, 1990, in Detroit for the 1990 National Junior Bowling Championships.

The youth, who were classified into girls' and boys' divisions, competed in scratch and handicapped events for scholarships.

Kelly Everding of Arvada, Colo., won the girls' scratch division title and $5,000 scholarship when she defeated Allyson Allmang of Richardson, Texas, 220-216, in the championship match.

Everding, who finished second in the 1989 National Junior Bowling Championships, is the 1990 recipient of the Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow Award.

Rachel Zick of Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, won the girls' handicap division title and $5,000 scholarship when she defeated Sheila Harvey of Terre Haute, Ind., 243-212.

Two hundred thirty-six youth competed July 13 to 15, 1989, at Regal Bowling Lanes in Tampa, Fla., in the 1989 National Junior Bowling Championships.

Allison Odaguchi of Winnipeg, Manitoba, won the girls' division scratch event by defeating Everding, 182-162, in the championship match. Odaguchi pocketed a $5,000 scholarship for her victory.

Jessie Wolfe of Kersey, Pa., defeated 14-year-old Jill Keim of Europe, 204-186, to win the tournament's girls' handicap division. Wolfe earned a $5,000 scholarship for her victory.

WIBC ANNUAL MEETING CONDENSED MINUTES .....

PRESIDENT GLADYS M. BANKER PRESIDING OVER HER SECOND WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL BOWLING CONGRESS ANNUAL MEETING.

Monday Morning

Call to Order

The Women's International Bowling Congress 73rd Annual Meeting convened at 9 a.m., Monday, April 23, 1990, at the Curtis Hixon Convention Center in Tampa, Fla., WIBC President Gladys M. Banker of Charles Town, W.Va., presiding.

Invocation, Pledges and Anthems

Dr. Fred H. Boehmer, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Brandon, Fla., gave the invocation. Annual Meeting participants recited the "Pledge of Allegiance," and sang the national anthems of Canada and the United States.

WIBC Delegates' Party Committee

President Banker introduced Shirlee Kutzner of Nutley, N.J., WIBC director and Delegates' Party Committee chairman. Kutzner said the previous day's party was a beautiful and joyous event. She thanked the many people who made the event possible, and announced Howard and Joan Glimpse of South Carolina won complimentary American Airlines tickets. Joan Glimpse is an area recruitment coordinator from the WIBC Area Recruitment Coordinator Program. Kutzner then introduced committee members to the WIBC delegation.

Thank You to Delegates

President Banker asked all delegates attending their first WIBC Annual Meeting to stand for recognition. She then addressed all delegates.

"We are delighted to see so many of you willing to volunteer in the administrative side of our sport. There is much talk today that we don't have the volunteers who are willing to devote their time to organizations. My observations have been that bowling continues to be blessed with a great many of you who do volunteer and who are very dedicated to WIBC and to your own local bowling associations. We thank you for your continued interest.

"This new decade requires us, as an active membership organization, to set goals. I'd like us all to remember that we must provide two important aspects to our game, sanctioning and services. Sanctioning is the main key. A sanctioned league bowler is a committed bowler. They bowl every week. They belong. They are supportive to the proprietor; to the industry as a whole; and to us, each of us on the local, state and national levels. They are long-term customers. The key to keeping sanctioned league bowlers is the very best service we can give."

Welcome from Host Cities and States

President Banker presented Sandra Freeman, mayor of Tampa, Fla. Freeman welcomed delegates to Tampa, Fla.; and said the city's people were excited to have tournament participants and their family members visit. President Banker then introduced Rev. William Wynn, president of the Greater Brandon (Fla.) Chamber of Commerce. Wynn greeted the delegates and hoped they have a wonderful time in the sunshine state.

Tampa (Fla.) WBA Welcome

President Banker presented Pilar Cohalla of Tampa, Fla. Cohalla serves as the Tampa (Fla.) Women's Bowling Association president and local tournament coordinator.

Cohalla said "I thank you for accepting our invitation four years ago. We are indeed very happy to have you here with us today. We hope you will enjoy yourself and that you will return to your homes with pleasant recollections of what you have seen and done here. To be host to such a gathering is an honor of which any association may well be proud."

President Banker then introduced LaMar Williams of the Tampa-Hillsborough Convention and Visitors Association, Inc. Williams presented Cohalla with a commemorative plaque symbolizing the bureau's appreciation for her tremendous efforts in preparing for and hosting the WIBC Championship Tournament and Annual Meeting.

Williams then presented President Banker with a commemorative plaque thanking WIBC for coming to the Tampa, Fla., area.

President Banker introduced several women from the Tampa WBA who helped lead the association's tournament and meeting planning efforts, and then she asked all the association members to stand for recognition.

Annual Meeting Rules

WIBC First Vice President Joyce Deitch of Las Vegas, Nev., read the WIBC Annual Meeting rules for the 73rd Annual Meeting as approved by the WIBC Board of Directors. By action of the delegates, the rules, as read, were adopted.

Florida WBA Welcome

President Banker reintroduced Pilar Cohalla, who is also the president of the Florida Women's Bowling Association. Cohalla again addressed the delegates.

"I extend a warm welcome to you from our sunshine state. We hope you will have time to enjoy the state's many beauty spots and its many facilities of recreation. We have made arrangements to show you the warmth and hospitality that exists here."

President Banker asked the Florida WBA board of directors to stand for recognition.

WIBC Introductions

President Banker introduced the WIBC Board of Directors; Helen Baker, WIBC life member; Flora Mitchell, WIBC executive secretary-treasurer; Nancy Tatum, WIBC assistant secretary-treasurer; Barbara Larson, WIBC parliamentarian; and Jim Burns, WIBC legal counsel.

NELLIE PESTINGER OF WICHITA, KAN., HAS COMPETED IN 50 WIBC CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENTS.

50 Years of Tournament Participation

President Banker presented Nellie Pestinger of Wichita, Kan., to the delegates.

President Banker said Pestinger would receive a plaque commemorating her 50 years of competing in WIBC Championship Tournaments when she competes in the 1990 WIBC Championship Tournament. Pestinger is only the ninth woman to achieve the 50-year milestone. Pestinger addressed the delegates.

"I want to thank WIBC and all those people through the past 50 years that have helped me make the convention—the Kansas girls. I have enjoyed bowling, I like people and I love to work with it. Thank you all."

WIBC Vice President and Kansas WBA President Lavonne Hodgson of Salina, Kan., presented Pestinger with a bouquet of red roses.

Introductions

President Banker introduced Joan Joyce of Boca Raton, Fla., to the delegates.

Joyce is a Women's Sports Foundation Hall of Fame member; professional softball league founder, player, eight-time Most Valuable Player and 18-time All American Team member. Joyce is also a champion basketball and volleyball player, as well as an accomplished bowler.

President Banker then introduced Roger Dalkin, American Bowling Congress assistant executive director, and his wife, Karen.

American Bowling Congress

President Banker introduced ABC President Boyd Pexton. Pexton addressed the delegates.

Pexton said ABC was blessed with great leadership throughout its history. He said ABC was particularly proud of the expertise and leadership ABC Executive Director Darold Dobs and Assistant Executive Director Dalkin had brought to their new positions.

Pexton said there is a need to improve the image non-bowlers have of bowlers and bowling. He informed the delegates that ABC attempts to improve bowling's image through the media. Pexton reported "Bowling World" would be repeated next season and ABC's weekly radio show would be broadcast nationwide.

He said ABC's greatest accomplishments were achieved in conjunction with WIBC. Pexton cited the System of Bowling efforts and the United States Tenpin Bowling Federation formation as the greatest accomplishments. He predicted the ABC/WIBC Mixed National Tournament and ABC/WIBC Joint Rules Book would also be successful.

Introductions

President Banker introduced Paul Boller, ABC director; Jackie Kaiser, Florida Bowling Association president; Robert Carr, Florida Bowling Association secretary; Tom Pidgeon, Tampa (Fla.) Bowling Association president; and Ron Tucker, Tampa (Fla.) Bowling Association secretary.

She also introduced people from the Tampa-Hillsborough Convention and Visitors Association, Inc.; the Curtis Hixon Convention Center; Tampa Hyatt Regency, WIBC headquarters hotel; and the Wyndham Harbour Island Hotel.

National Bowling Council

President Banker introduced Don Hillman, National Bowling Council president. Hillman addressed the delegates.

Hillman announced NBC has been streamlined and narrowed in focus. He said NBC would continue to promote its co-op advertising campaign. The campaign encourages proprietors to advertise to maintain a strong bowling awareness in communities.

Hillman said NBC would also continue to promote the In-School Bowling Program.

He then introduced Elaine Hagin of Castro Valley, Calif. Hagin serves as WIBC second vice president and NBC Day Ladies Committee chairman. She addressed the delegates.

Hagin announced the launching of the "Make Your Day" program, which will encourage women who stay home during the day to join day bowling leagues.

"Today we are launching one of the most exciting programs I have ever been involved with. It is one that has been designed especially for us to help reach out and attract new members in cities and towns across the nation."

Hagin said a "Make Your Day" sales kit was created to help associations and proprietors attract new daytime bowlers. The kit, which recognizes these women who already feel too busy to bowl, encourages them to do something for themselves to escape daily pressures.

Each kit includes posters, for display at stores, organization meetings and other places; a manual, with detailed step-by-step promotion and marketing instructions; table tents, for use either inside or outside bowling centers; and print advertising materials, so associations and proprietors may create program awareness through local newspapers. Hagin said a two-part videocassette, featuring Chris Zahn and WIBC Hall of Famer Pam Buckner, is also available. The video was shown to the delegates.

Hagin encouraged delegates to contact their bowling center proprietors and use the kits together. She also recommended working with WIBC area recruitment coordinators.

Hagin announced NBC would conduct a national women's bowling publicity effort. NBC would contact major women's media, both print and broadcast, and discuss bowling's many benefits. NBC will also send media a special press kit, with detailed bowling information.

Introductions

President Banker introduced people from the BVL Fund, National Bowling Council, American Bowling Congress, Bowling Proprietors' Association of America, Brunswick and the Ladies Pro Bowlers Tour.

President Banker thanked Brunswick for its sponsorship of TEAM USA and its assistance with the Women's National Intercollegiate Championships.

1990 WOMEN'S NATIONAL INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIPS CHAMPION LINDA WOODS AND THE MARION LADEWIG TROPHY.

Award Presentations

President Banker introduced Linda Woods of Hudson, Fla., and the University of Florida. Woods, who remained undefeated in match play competition, won the 1990 Women's National Intercollegiate Championships in Tampa, Fla.

President Banker, WIBC Hall of Famer Marion Ladewig and Brunswick Recreation Centers President Arnie Fogel presented Woods with the tournament's Marion Ladewig Trophy. On behalf of Brunswick, Fogel also presented Woods with a $1,000 scholarship.

President Banker then introduced Kelly Everding of Arvada, Colo. Everding is the 1990 recipient of the Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow Award.

Everding holds a 198 average; and has earned career-high accomplishments of a 699 three-game series and one 300 game. Her 300 game rates as Colorado's first by a junior bowler. Throughout her junior bowling career, Everding has earned 111 tournament titles and five second-place finishes. Her second-place finishes include the 1989 National Junior Bowling Championships in Tampa, Fla.

President Banker presented Everding with the 30th Alberta E. Crowe Star of Tomorrow Award and a $1,000 scholarship.

Young American Bowling Alliance

President Banker introduced Milton Raymer, American High School Bowling Congress founder; and Chuck Hall, Young American Bowling Alliance past executive director.

She then introduced Ed Clarkson, YABA executive director. Clarkson addressed the delegates.

Clarkson reported YABA membership—for the third consecutive year—is increasing. He credited the increase to YABA's pee wee division and the collegiate division.

Clarkson said more junior colleges, trade schools, colleges and universities are offering campus bowling programs. He said the National Collegiate Bowling Championships for the first time will be televised, tape delayed, on ESPN.

Clarkson thanked the National Bowling Council for the In-School Bowling Program. He announced YABA and Lifetime Learning Systems will use the In-School Bowling Program to introduce bowling into 12,000 junior high and middle schools during the next year. The In-School Bowling Program is funded by ABC and WIBC.

Clarkson said YABA was very strong. He said a new awards program was being tested and the pee wee division program was being modified. The modified program, which will be called BIF's Pee Wee Bowling Club, will emphasize fun and de-emphasize competition.

Clarkson announced YABA had selected the Children's Miracle Network as YABA's official charity. He said YABA will help its local associations conduct fund-raising events to raise money for the Children's Miracle Network. Clarkson said the program was designed so the money raised in a specific area will stay in that same area to help a local Children's Miracle Network hospital.

Fund-raising events will take place in either January or February. The child in each age division that obtains the most sponsors nationwide will receive an all-expense-paid trip to Disneyland to present YABA's check on the nationally televised telethon.

President Banker introduced YABA staff and local YABA representatives. She thanked them for their dedicated efforts. President Banker then introduced Dick Mittendorf of Coca-Cola USA. She thanked Coca-Cola for its youth bowling sponsorship.

WIBC Helen Baker Award Presentation

President Banker said the WIBC Helen Baker Award was created to acknowledge outstanding leadership of local and state association board and committee members who promote all aspects of tenpin bowling. The award—which was being presented for the first time—is named in honor of Helen Baker of Cocoa Beach, Fla., WIBC life member and past president.

President Banker said WIBC was overwhelmed by the qualifications of nominated candidates. She then asked Baker to announce the award winner. Baker announced Marcy Bayne of Calais, Vt. Baker presented Bayne with a Waterford Crystal clock.

Bayne has been a member of the Twin City WBA and Vermont WBA since 1961. She previously had been a member of the Washington D.C. Area WBA.

As Twin City WBA president, she helped facilitate a growth in association membership and city tournament team entries.

Bayne has served on the Vermont Junior Association board since 1968 and acted as tournament coordinator since 1982. While on the board, she has held the positions of president and secretary-treasurer. Bayne instituted the first State Junior Bowling Association scholarship fund in 1984, and she is still responsible for its fund-raising efforts. In 1989, the fund distributed $8,800 in scholarships.

Bayne instituted the state's first bowling council in March 1978, and she still serves as president.

Bowling Proprietors' Association of America

President Banker introduced Don Hillman, Bowling Proprietors' Association of America president. Hillman addressed the delegates and introduced several people representing the BPAA.

"Much has been said and written about the System of Bowling. None rings more true than the realization that with your cooperation, with the support of WIBC, this industry will finally be a in position to put aside the scoring issue and concentrate on the most serious issue this industry faces. Simply put, it is to improve the bowling experience for our customers."

He said the WIBC Area Recruitment Coordinator Program is a breath of fresh air in the industry.

Hillman urged WIBC not to assume proprietors will sanction their leagues. He said 25 percent of all leagues are not sanctioned. He said the perceived value of sanctioning should be a high priority on the local, state and national levels.

He said BPAA continues to educate its proprietors and develop the highest quality marketing programs for the 1990s. Hillman urged the industry, BPAA and WIBC to accept constructive criticism and seek progressive ideas. Hillman said progressive thinking may include sanctioning modified formats.

Introductions

President Banker introduced the WIBC Championship Tournament host proprietors: William Morris, Regal Bowling Lanes president; and Robert and Patricia Dykes, Oakfield Lanes of Brandon president and owners.

Morris and Dykes each presented $1,000 checks and pledged an additional $4,000 each to the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum in St. Louis.

WIBC Hall of Fame Inductions

President Banker opened the WIBC Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony by announcing three women would be inducted into the WIBC Hall of Fame. The three inductees would bring the total number of WIBC Hall of Fame inductees to 100.

President Banker began the inductions with WIBC's first 1990 superior performance inductee, Dorothy Wilkinson of Phoenix, Ariz.

Wilkinson, an amateur bowler, has dedicated her life to sports. She had the talent and fortune to reach championship caliber in two sports: softball and bowling.

According to Wilkinson, her greatest sports moment occurred in 1962 when she won the WIBC Queens Tournament before a hometown crowd in Phoenix, Ariz. She defeated WIBC Hall of Famer Marion Ladewig in WIBC's closest championship match—five pins—to earn the highly prestigious title.

In 1963, Wilkinson won the WIBC Championship Tournament singles event title and won four medals in the Federation Internationale des Quilleurs World Championships. She also has several local and state titles to her credit.

President Banker continued the induction ceremony with WIBC's second 1990 superior performance inductee: Pam Buckner of Reno, Nev.

Buckner, a professional bowler, began bowling at age 7 and never looked back.

She has five WIBC-sanctioned 300 games, a 794 three-game series and a 215 career-high average to her credit.

Throughout her illustrious career, she has earned 22 professional titles—including 16 regional Worldwide Women Professional Bowlers crowns. Buckner also won the 1976 WIBC Queens Tournament title, and was named to the Woman Bowler All-American Team in 1977 and 1981.

While a student at California State University at Chico, she won all-events titles in 1972, 1973, 1974 and 1975. Her winning ways continued in Oroville, Calif., when she won all-events titles in 1976 and 1977. After a move to Reno, Nev., Buckner won all-events titles in 1980 and 1983-1987. She also won the Reno-Sparks-Herlog WBA Queens Tournament in 1986. Buckner earned California WBA doubles event and all-events titles in 1975 and 1976, and Nevada WBA all-event titles in 1982, 1984 and 1985.

President Banker concluded the induction ceremony with WIBC's 1990 meritorious service inductee: Gertrude Finke of Minneapolis.

Finke—an avid bowler—has served bowling on the local, state and national levels. She began her bowling administrative career in 1949 as a Minneapolis WBA director. Finke became her local association's president in 1955. When the 1964 WIBC Championship Tournament was held in Minneapolis, she served as local tournament coordinator. She continues to organize and charter trips to the WIBC Championship Tournament each year.

In 1951, she became a Minnesota WBA director. Finke quickly advanced and became Minnesota WBA president in 1960. She served as state president for five years and then became state secretary for 12 years. During her state tenure, she is credited with organizing 51 local WBAs during a two-year period.

Finke, who became involved with youth bowling in 1950, served as an American Junior Bowling Congress director for two years and local president for six years. She is credited with instituting Minnesota's first state junior tournament.

Finke is also a charter member of the Minnesota Bowling Council, and served as its president and secretary.

She served for several years on the WIBC Nominating Committee, and served as chairman for three years.

Upon completion of the WIBC Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony, President Banker recessed the Monday morning session until 2:15 p.m.

Monday Afternoon

The second session of the 73rd WIBC Annual Meeting convened at 2:15 p.m. President Banker presiding.

WIBC Hall of Fame and Member Emeritus Introductions

The present WIBC Hall of Fame members (including 1990 inductees) and members emeritus marched into the convention center and were introduced by President Banker.

National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum

President Banker introduced Gerald Baltz, National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum executive director. Baltz addressed the delegates.

Baltz announced NBHF/M attendance increased 9.5 percent during the year; and for the third consecutive year the NBHF/M would not have to borrow WIBC funds.

He said the inaugural Salute to Champions successfully provided the opportunity for 700 association representatives, proprietors, manufacturers, suppliers and sponsors to meet and enjoy the museum. He reported it brought the industry together and helped everyone recognize bowling as a top-notch, first-class sport.

Baltz then showed delegates a video detailing Salute to Champions events.

In closing, he said "The National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum tells the story of your sport. It's a fascinating story. An amazingly interesting narrative. I believe those people who designed the museum saw to it that it tells the story tremendously well. But we will only be successful in telling that story to a larger and larger number of people with your continued or new generosity and by your participation in the Budweiser Hall of Fame Tournament. Together we can't lose."

National Women Bowling Writers Association

President Banker introduced Ann Adams, National Women Bowling Writers Association president. Adams addressed the delegates.

Adams said the NWBW made more than $2,000 for the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum through its NWBW Exchange Mart. She said the $2,000 brought the NWBW contribution total to $24,000.

Adams announced the NWBW award winners and new NWBW officers.

Bowling Writers Association of America

President Banker introduced Bruce Pluckhahn, Bowling Writers Association of America president. Pluckhahn addressed the delegates.

Pluckhahn said the day the BWAA allowed women to become members is the day the BWAA came of age. "Today, it is a very meaningful organization."

He said women helped design meaningful programs, develop publicity materials, and generate awareness of bowlers and bowling writers. Pluckhahn urged the delegates to get to know their bowling writers and provide them with good, informative information. By working together, he said, bowling news will continue to be reported in newspapers.

50th Anniversary Plaque Presentations

President Banker, WIBC Vice President Joyce Deitch and WIBC Executive Secretary-Treasurer Flora Mitchell presented plaques to 33 local and state associations commemorating their 50th year of operation. They also announced the names of 58 other local and state associations that elected to receive their 50th Anniversary Plaques at local and state association celebrations.

Credentials Committee Report

President Banker introduced Myrt Bruegeman of North Highlands, Calif., WIBC Credentials Committee chairman. Bruegeman addressed the delegates.

Bruegeman reported there were nine WIBC officers, 17 WIBC directors, one WIBC life member, 15 WIBC members emeritus, 52 state and provincial delegates, and 3,248 local association delegates. She said the total number eligible to vote was 3,342.

1989 Annual Meeting Minutes Action

Joyce Deitch, WIBC vice president, moved to dispense with the reading of the 1989 Annual Meeting minutes. The WIBC Board of Directors reviewed and approved the minutes Nov. 13, 1989; and the minutes were distributed to all local and state associations through the 1988-89 WIBC Annual Report. Elaine Hagin, WIBC vice president, seconded the motion and it carried.

WIBC PRESIDENT GLADYS M. BANKER DELIVERING THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT TO 1990 WIBC ANNUAL MEETING DELEGATES.

Report of the President

President Banker thanked those people who diligently worked to make the 1990 WIBC Annual Meeting a success.

She encouraged everyone to step back and consider how they can make an impact on the sport. She said everyone needs to care about WIBC bowlers and take time to become bowling mentors for at least one new bowler per season.

President Banker reported she appointed 55 area recruitment coordinators, or ARCs, to operate the WIBC Area Recruitment Coordinator Program in the United States and Canada. She encouraged local and state associations to work with their ARCs, and also have their ARCs work with local proprietors.

"The program is not a short-term fix. Short term won't do the job. Long-term results will be a network of groups within each of the states and provinces working toward common goals to make our sport better and to bring more people into our game."

President Banker asked all ARCs present to join her on the dais. She then thanked them for their support and effort.

President Banker said WIBC is preparing for the future with another new program: The WIBC Future Leaders Program. She said delegates would hear more about the program in later WIBC committee reports.

She thanked those people who continue to support the In-School Bowling Program through the WIBC Penny Pal Program.

"I sincerely extend appreciation to all of you who continue to give your penny a game toward this very important project. We urge all of the league officers present to take home the message of the importance of the In-School Program, and we hope you will suggest to your leagues they join the program."

President Banker presented WIBC's new logo to the delegates. The logo was scheduled to debut with all materials for the 1990-91 bowling season. She said the new logo would be modified for WIBC's 75th Anniversary season and the modified logo would incorporate WIBC's 75th Anniversary slogan: Proud of Our Past—Prepared for the Future.

President Banker thanked the delegates for the dues increase.

"The dues increase has allowed the WIBC board of directors to bring forth a number of the programs that had been placed on the back burner. And of course, as you know, WIBC was able to reinstitute many of the very valuable programs that were suspended for one year.

"It has been a great year since we have been able to send members of the WIBC board of directors and staff members to a multitude of events. Both Executive Secretary-Treasurer Mitchell and I have received many, many letters of appreciation and thanks for having a WIBC representative in attendance.

"We have also gone forward with a number of new programs like the Future Leaders, Area Recruitment Coordinators and the providing of educational videos.

"Be assured a careful study is being done by the board of directors on any expenditures of dollars. We tried to look at the total picture and carefully weigh the value to WIBC."

President Banker concluded her report by thanking Flora Mitchell, executive secretary-treasurer; WIBC staff members; WIBC board of directors; and Helen Baker, WIBC life member.

President's Award Presentations

President Banker presented awards to local and state associations in recognition of their successful promotions to have teams enter the WIBC Championship Tournament. Receiving President's Awards were: Washington D.C. Area (Va.) WBA; Michigan WBA; Leon (W.Va.) WBA; New Hampshire WBA; and St. Augustine (Fla.) WBA.

Report of the Secretary

Flora Mitchell, WIBC executive secretary-treasurer, said she would not deliver her entire report from the 1990 Officers and Committees Report, but only highlight a few topics.

Mitchell encouraged delegates to read the report's list of reinstated services; discussions of the two-part WIBC membership application card; and 275 through 297 awards presentation changes.

She said much effort was being put into producing the American Bowling Congress and WIBC joint rules book. Mitchell said delegates may need to address additional legislation at the 1991 WIBC Annual Meeting to bring the rules of both organizations into alignment.

Mitchell said as of April 20, 1990, WIBC membership was 2,802,508 members. She said the membership total was the first time in several years the total dipped below the 3 million mark. She also reported a 4.28 percent decline in league numbers from the previous season.

Mitchell said the certification process had been modified to expedite the processing and issuing of bowling center certificates. Modifications included new application forms and inspection procedures.

She reported the WIBC board of directors had increased some tournament entry fees, effective with the 1992 WIBC Championship Tournament. The approved increase is $2 per person competing in the team, doubles and singles events. The fee for all events will not be increased.

Mitchell said $1 of the $2 increase will be added to the prize fund and the remaining $1 will be used to finance operating expenses. She said WIBC acted to increase entry fees because it anticipates $82,000 in operating deficits for the 1990 and 1991 tournaments.

Before concluding, Mitchell announced she would retire as WIBC executive secretary-treasurer Oct. 1, 1991. She said her early announcement was to provide ample time for the WIBC board of directors to name her replacement.

"Serving as the executive secretary-treasurer of the world's largest sports organization for women has been and still is the greatest challenge of my life. Working with the talented WIBC board of directors and staff, along with the hundreds of local and state association leaders, has provided me many, many, many rewarding experiences. My sincere thanks to President Gladys Banker for her guidance; the WIBC board of directors for its competence; and WIBC staff for all their hard, dedicated work."

WIBC Member Emeritus Election

President Banker announced at the April 1989 WIBC board of directors meeting the board nominated past WIBC Director Margaret Howell of Rome, Ga., for election as a WIBC member emeritus.

WIBC Director Irene Kreidler of Oyster Bay, N.Y., moved to elect Howell to member emeritus status by acclamation. WIBC vice president Elaine Hagin seconded the motion and it carried.

Howell was elected WIBC member emeritus by acclamation.

Report of the Treasurer

Flora Mitchell, WIBC executive secretary-treasurer, said she would not deliver her entire report from the 1990 Officers and Committee Reports, but only briefly discuss a few items.

Mitchell explained what the many OCR Book exhibits detailed, and briefly commented on the 1988-89 WIBC emblems and awards cost savings, Bowling Booster Program and WIBC Playing Rules Book start-up costs, CLIW class and video increased costs, and Area Recruitment Coordinator Program support expenses.

Mitchell said the 1989-90 revenue budget was based on a 1 percent membership decrease (3 million members). Current WIBC membership figures, however, reflected a 5 percent decrease. Therefore, the cash flow analysis reflected a decrease in cash provided by operations. She said the projected cash balance will allow WIBC to set up reserves for future inflation and new programs.

Advisory and Planning Committee

President Banker introduced Hazel McLeary of Victoria, B.C., Canada, WIBC seventh vice president and WIBC Advisory and Planning Committee chairman. McLeary addressed the delegates.

McLeary said two of WIBC's highest priorities are to recruit members and develop leaders.

To help recruit members, WIBC has developed the Area Recruitment Coordinator Program. She said the ARC program has been successful. To help develop leaders, WIBC has created the WIBC Helen Baker Award and the WIBC Future Leaders Program. McLeary encouraged delegates to complete nomination forms for selecting the 1991 WIBC Helen Baker Award recipient. She then announced the names of women who were selected to participate in the inaugural 1990 WIBC Future Leaders Program. McLeary asked program participants present in the delegation to stand for recognition.

She showed delegates two new WIBC videos—"Shop 'Til You Drop" and "Meeting of the Month." McLeary said a third WIBC video—"Why Sanction"—would be produced soon.

She reported WIBC and the Maryland Casualty Company would soon be providing property and casualty liability insurance for state and local associations to purchase. McLeary said insurance options would also cover association offices regardless if offices are owned, rented or located in association secretaries' homes.

In conclusion, McLeary said "We will work to provide you with the skills, tools and motivation needs in your role as leaders of our sport. Please continue your fine work. Your efforts are needed and appreciated."

Spotlight Award Presentations

President Banker presented WIBC Spotlight Awards to select local and state WBAs for their outstanding performances in several areas.

Areas may include, interrelations with other bowling family members, programs and services they provide members, recognitions and awards they implement, and promotion and public relations activities they conduct.

Local associations receiving the award were Citrus Belt (Calif.) WBA, Rockland County (N.Y.) WBA, Beaver County (Pa.) WBA, Montgomery County (Texas) WBA and Tillamook (Ore.) WBA. State associations receiving the award were Indiana and North Dakota.

Bruegeman reported: nine WIBC officers, 17 WIBC directors, one WIBC life member, 15 WIBC members emeritus, 52 state and provincial delegates and 3,268 local association delegates were present. The total number eligible to vote was 3,362.

ABC/WIBC Equipment Specification Committee

President Banker introduced Joyce Deitch, WIBC vice president and ABC/WIBC Equipment Specifications Committee chairman. Deitch addressed the delegates.

Deitch said considerable work had been accomplished with the System of Bowling. The System of Bowling is the interaction of the bowling ball, lane surface, lane dressing and bowling pins.

To demonstrate this interaction, Deitch showed the delegates a video.

Deitch discussed some WIBC legislation concerning the System of Bowling. She reiterated it is not the committee's intent to work with the manufacturers to set specifications, but to work with manufacturers regarding their testing procedures and abilities to meet the committee's specifications.

Deitch said the committee decided to withdraw legislation reducing balance hole size in bowling balls. She said the committee was informed manufacturers could circumvent the reduction's intended purpose by changing weight block configurations. The committee decided to delay the legislation until it could propose the entire System of Bowling legislation next year.

Legislative Committee

President Banker introduced Sylvia Broyles of San Antonio, Texas, WIBC fifth vice president and WIBC Legislative Committee chairman.

Broyles reviewed procedures for considering proposed amendments and presented the committee's report containing the proposed amendments.

Delegates acted on proposed amendments. (Actions are detailed elsewhere in the WIBC Annual Report.)

The Tuesday morning session recessed until 2 p.m.

Tuesday Afternoon

The fourth session of the 73rd WIBC Annual Meeting convened at 2 p.m., President Banker presiding.

Legislative Committee

Delegates continued to act on proposed amendments.

Legal Committee

President Banker introduced Mitzi Herold of Aiken, S.C., WIBC director and WIBC Legal Committee chairman. Herold addressed the delegates.

Herold reported during the 1988-89 season the committee finalized 1,601 cases with 1,196 defendants suspended from membership for an indefinite period of time.

She said as of April 16, 1990, the committee finalized 1,112 cases with 755 defendants suspended for either nonpayment of league fees or for improper notices.

Herold stressed the importance of association and league leaders communicating to members they must pay their league fees and give notices.

She asked the committee members to stand for recognition. Herold also thanked the WIBC legal department and Jim Burns, WIBC counsel, for their assistance.

National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum Committee

President Banker introduced Clara Morton of Powell, Tenn., WIBC director and WIBC National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum Committee chairman. Morton addressed the delegates.

Morton reported the NBHF/M experienced a 9.5 percent increase in attendance numbers, and an addition of two trustees on the NBHF/M board of trustees.

She said associations are doing a great job in contributing to the NBHF/M, and the NBHF/M is pleased to recognize this support through the Association All-Stars Program.

Morton said a "Friends" booth at the WIBC Annual Meeting raised $3,030 for the NBHF/M.

She said donations in honor of past WIBC President Alberta E. Crowe reached the $100,000 mark. In honor of this milestone, the NBHF/M will dedicate the New Stars Rotunda, located near the WIBC and ABC halls of fame, in Crowe's honor. The rotunda displays oil paintings and bronze plaques of the most recent WIBC and American Bowling Congress halls of fame inductees.

Morton thanked those associations who conducted Budweiser Hall of Fame Tournaments.

She said the NBHF/M Salute to Champions was a showcase event that raised more than $75,000 for the NBHF/M. She said the NBHF/M was currently planning a second annual event, but the dates were not finalized. Morton encouraged associations to send at least one representative to the "Hollywood premier of bowling."

Morton accepted several donations to the NBHF/M.

National Bowling Council and BVL Fund Committees

President Banker introduced Elaine Hagin, WIBC vice president and National Bowling Council and BVL Fund committees chairman. Hagin addressed the delegates.

According to Hagin, the integral parts of the National Bowling Council are promoting, advertising, marketing, educating and conducting public relations. The No. 1 priority of these parts is retaining current bowlers, recovering dropout bowlers and introducing new people to bowling.

During the 1989 summer, NBC conducted three major joint-promotional campaigns that provided $8 million in financial support. The campaigns involved Campbell's Soup's Hungry Man Dinners, Kool-Aid Drinks, and General Foods' Pebbles Cereal. NBC also secured General Foods as a sponsor for the 1989 National Junior Bowling Championships.

Hagin said NBC was also very involved in a national campaign to attract women who are home during the day to bowl in day leagues. The national campaign is titled "Make Your Day."

She encouraged local and state associations to form bowling councils. These councils may receive support materials from NBC.

THE BVL FUND ANNUALLY PRESENTS AWARDS TO TOP CONTRIBUTING LOCAL AND STATE WOMEN'S BOWLING ASSOCIATIONS.

"The challenge of the '90s is upon us. With your continued support at the local and state level, we can envision and make it happen. A resurgence in our sport in this decade will benefit all of us. The many, many hours you give to promoting the sport of bowling as volunteers and dedicated leaders are unsurpassed. The National Bowling Council extends its sincerest gratitude to all of you."

Hagin announced WIBC members, for the fifth consecutive year, helped raise more than $1 million for the BVL Fund during the 1988-89 bowling season. The official total was $1,059,516.78.

Hagin presented awards to four associations for their contributions to the BVL Fund during the 1988-89 season: Orange County (Calif.) WBA for most funds contributed, a record $32,700; Laurens County (S.C.) WBA for most funds contributed on a membership basis, $12.09 per member; Flint (Mich.) WBA for having the largest increase in contributions, 733.10 percent; and West Virginia WBA, the largest state contributor on a per membership basis, $1.69 per member. The last award is a new addition for the 1988-89 season.

Hagin introduced Helen Duval of Berkeley, Calif. Duval—who is the honorary chairman of the BVL fund—visited 22 VA Medical Centers, visited with patients and conducted bowling clinics.

Hagin announced a formal request was made to have the Saginaw, Mich., VA Medical Center renamed the Aleda E. Lutz Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center. The formal request requires Congress to pass a bill and the president sign it into law.

U.S. Army 1st Lt. Lutz—a Saginaw, Mich., WBA member—was killed Nov. 1, 1944, while evacuating 15 World War II servicemen from Southern France. As an original member of the 802nd Medical Air Evacuation Squadron, Lutz is credited with flying 197 missions, evacuating more than 3,500 servicemen and logging the most flight hours of any woman at that time. Lutz is also the first woman to receive (posthumously) the Distinguished Flying Cross. In honor of her service, the U.S. Army dedicated and named its then-largest hospital ship after Lutz. In July 1945, WIBC also donated a C-47 evacuation plane to the war effort and dedicated it in memory to Lutz.

Hagin said she would keep delegates informed of the renaming status.

She then introduced Helene Phillips, BVL Fund administrator. Phillips addressed the delegates and thanked them for their generous donations of time and money.

President Banker accepted several donations to the BVL Fund.

Marketing and Public Relations Committee

President Banker reintroduced Joyce Deitch, WIBC vice president, and Marketing and Public Relations Committee chairman. Deitch addressed the delegates.

Deitch said the committee has carefully analyzed all of WIBC's marketing and public relations efforts. She encouraged local and state WBAs to do the same. Deitch said the analytical effort will strengthen existing programs.

She asked delegates to indicate whether they appreciated the Annual Meeting video and large television screen. By applause, delegates indicated they appreciated the two innovations.

Deitch encouraged delegates to provide additional Annual Meeting feedback.

She then showed delegates a television commercial WIBC had recently produced, which was scheduled to debut during the 1990 WIBC Queens Tournament telecast on ESPN.

Deitch said the target audience for the committee's current efforts are WIBC members who are not aware of the local, state and national organizations. The committee's second target audience is comprised of women who bowl in unsanctioned leagues.

In conclusion, she said "the committee is confident the WIBC Area Recruitment Coordinator Program and WIBC Future Leaders Program will provide the impetus throughout the WIBC network to further our goals in membership service, membership retention and membership growth."

75th Anniversary Committee

Elaine Hagin, WIBC vice president and 75th Anniversary Committee chairman, addressed the delegates.

Hagin said the slogan "Proud of Our Past—Prepared for the Future" is the definitive slogan WIBC will use to celebrate its 75th anniversary during the 1991-92 bowling season.

She said WIBC will begin its anniversary celebrations in 1991 and culminate them at the 1992 WIBC Annual Meeting in Lansing, Mich.

"Not only do WIBC's plans call for some really exciting activities up to and including our Diamond Jubilee Year, but WIBC also envisions this entire celebration is going to be a time to reinforce the pride, dedication and loyalty of our members to WIBC and to state and local women's bowling associations."

She said members of the National Women Bowling Writers Association, 600 Bowling Club, 700 Bowling Club and the Pioneer Club met after the 1989 WIBC Annual Meeting to discuss their plans for celebrating WIBC's anniversary. Hagin said they have some very exciting plans. She also announced the Lansing and Michigan WBAs have also pledged their full support.

Hagin said the committee's current efforts were directed toward involving local and state associations. She said WIBC prepared a brochure to show associations how to get involved. WIBC will mail the brochures after August 1990.

Hagin requested local and state WBAs to appoint a Diamond Jubilee Committee to be effective with the 1990-91 bowling season.

She then presented the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, Nov. 28, 1991, marks the 75th anniversary of the formation of the Ladies National Bowling Association, which evolved into the Women's International Bowling Congress; and

"WHEREAS, the Women's International Bowling Congress has become the largest sports organization in the world for women, and has the distinction of conducting the world's largest participation event when 78,462 of its members competed in the national championships in 1988; and

"WHEREAS, women who contributed to the growth of the sport and the organization during formative years are still competing, establishing that bowling is truly a lifetime sport; and

"WHEREAS, the program developed by the Women's International Bowling Congress has led to the formation of 54 state and provincial associations, nearly 2,800 local associations, and more than 129,000 leagues, thus creating a sisterhood of more than 3 million members; and

"WHEREAS, the Women's International Bowling Congress continues to foster the participation of youth, collegiate, adult and senior bowlers in the sport of bowling; and

"WHEREAS, the Women's International Bowling Congress has joined the bowling family in creating the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum and pledged its resources to secure medal status for bowling in the Olympic games; and

"WHEREAS, the members of the Women's International Bowling Congress have for nearly 50 years provided comfort to the nation's hospitalized veterans through the Bowlers Victory Legion, BVL Fund; and

"WHEREAS, the Women's International Bowling Congress provides leadership and service in both administration and technology in the United States, Canada, Puerto Rico, Bahamas, Bermuda, Mariana Islands and U.S. military installations worldwide; and

"WHEREAS, in keeping with its anniversary slogan, "Proud of Our Past—Prepared for the Future," the Women's International Bowling Congress is preparing to celebrate its founding;

"NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Women's International Bowling Congress, its members, leagues and local, state and provincial associations, dedicate the 1991-92 bowling season to the commemoration of their 75th anniversary."

Hagin moved for the resolution's adoption. The motion was seconded and carried.

ABC/WIBC National Mixed Championships Committee

President Banker introduced Nancy Chapman of Green Bay, Wis., WIBC Sergeant-at-Arms and ABC/WIBC National Mixed Tournament Committee co-chairman. Chapman addressed the delegates.

"Mixed leagues have constituted the greatest percentage of leagues sanctioned by ABC and WIBC. At the same time mixed-league competition has grown, there has been a corresponding question as to why bowlers in these leagues were not offered the same national championship opportunities as those available to all male and female teams.

"This committee is pleased to announce that our first national mixed championship tournament will be conducted in 1991 in St. Louis."

She said the first national mixed tournament will open June 15, 1991, and run through June 30, 1991, unless extended.

Chapman said Tropicana Lanes will host the handicapped tournament and the tournament is only open to amateur bowlers. Entry fees will be $20 per entrant per event and $5 per person per optional all events.

She said the team event will be comprised of two men and two women; doubles event of one man and one woman; and optional all events.

Chapman urged association leaders and delegates to encourage their members to sign up to participate.

United States Tenpin Bowling Federation Committee

President Banker reintroduced Joyce Deitch, WIBC vice president and United States Tenpin Bowling Federation Committee chairman. Deitch addressed the delegates.

Deitch announced a U.S. Olympic Committee grant of $100,000, payable over a three-year period, will be available to the USTBF. The funds are from a television agreement the U.S. Olympic Committee finalized with several television networks and stations.

She said the USTBF utilized a USOC grant to produce WIBC and ABC's new Certified Lane Inspector Workshop video.

Deitch said the U.S. trade embargo on Cuba continues to block the USTBF and U.S. manufacturers from providing bowling lanes for the Pan American Games in Cuba. She said the USTBF understands and respects the U.S. embargo position, but it also frustrates the USTBF's hopes.

Deitch said one of the reasons why the USTBF wants to be a part of the Cuban Pan American Games is so it may retain its current Group A status with the USOC. She said other international competitions would not have the same effect.

Deitch said the situation became more serious when the International Olympic Committee announced that demonstration and exhibition sports will be eliminated following the 1992 Olympic Games. This means bowling will have to go directly to medal sport status, and for this reason it is very important that it be included in the Pan Am Games.

She thanked Brunswick for its continued support and sponsorship of TEAM USA.

Deitch said the 1991 TEAM USA Bowling Tournament National Finals will be held in Atlanta and the 1992 national finals in San Diego.

She said the USTBF's decision to increase TEAM USA entry fees from $5 to $10 was difficult. She said the USTBF decided the advantages outweighed the disadvantages.

Deitch said the USTBF recognized many people previously participated in qualifying events to solely support TEAM USA. She said the USTBF realized many of these same people would not continue to do so with the entry fee increase. Therefore, the USTBF approved the TEAM USA Booster Program so that those people—who care deeply about TEAM USA but do not choose to seriously participate in TEAM USA qualifying tournaments—could continue to support TEAM USA.

Young American Bowling Alliance Committee

President Banker reintroduced Elaine Hagin, WIBC vice president and Young American Bowling Alliance Committee chairman. Hagin addressed the delegates.

Hagin reported YABA member Brentt Arcement has rolled the second-highest three-game series of all time—an 888—on games of 300, 288 and 300. She also mentioned several other bowling accomplishments by YABA members.

Hagin thanked the National Bowling Council for its continued sponsorship of the National Collegiate Bowling Championships.

She reported YABA members participating in 1990 TEAM USA Bowling Tournament qualifying competitions had greatly increased from 1989. She said 397 more males and 144 more females had participated in the 1990 event.

Hagin announced as of Dec. 11, 1989, YABA was granted representation on the USTBF Board of Trustees.

She also said YABA repaid $10,000 of its loan to WIBC, American Bowling Congress and the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America.

She reported YABA membership as of April 16, was 615,060 members. The youth division was comprised of 577,760 members; intercollegiate division, 3,231; campus division, 10,324; and pee wee division, 23,745.

Senior Committee

President Banker introduced Irene Kreidler, WIBC director and Senior Committee chairman. Kreidler addressed the delegates.

Kreidler said many local and state associations are doing an outstanding job of promoting bowling and recruiting new members from the senior population.

She announced a new seniors award emblem would be introduced in the 1990-91 bowling season. The emblem will carry the identity of the WIBC/ABC senior mixed league.

Kriedler reported a record number of women—171 women—will compete in the 1990 WIBC National Seniors Championships in Reno, Nev. She said the athletes will represent 47 U.S. states and three Canadian provinces. Kriedler welcomed Alaska to the tournament. She said Alaska had previously not sent a representative.

The Tuesday afternoon session was recessed until Wednesday, April 25, 1990, at 9 a.m.

WIBC ANNUAL MEETING DELEGATES

The Women's International Bowling Congress is a membership democracy.

To represent their members' interests, local and state women's bowling associations send delegates to the WIBC Annual Meeting.

Annual Meeting delegates consider and act upon proposed amendments, and elect officers to the WIBC Board of Directors.

Local women's bowling association size determines how many delegates local associations may select and send. The minimum number is one delegate and the maximum number is 16 delegates. Each state women's bowling associations may send one delegate.

Local and state women's bowling associations elect delegates by ballot.

SANCTIONED LEAGUES AND MEMBERS

(Number in parentheses indicates permanent members)

The Women's International Bowling Congress is a membership democracy.

During the 1989-90 bowling season, WIBC was comprised of 2,859,570 members, including permanent and unattached members. These members — who live in the United States, Canada and on U.S. military bases abroad — competed in 123,907 leagues and belonged to 2,838 state and local women's bowling associations.

The 1989-90 bowling season marks the first time since the 1969-70 bowling season WIBC membership has dropped below 3 million. WIBC membership reached its pinnacle during the 1978-79 bowling season with 4.2 million members who bowled in more than 162,000 leagues.

Women become WIBC state and local women's bowling association members when they pay membership dues through WIBC-sanctioned leagues and tournaments.

Note 5. "Be a Penny Pal" Program

WIBC sponsors the "Be a Penny Pal" program to raise funds to support in-school bowling programs. WIBC members are asked to donate a penny for each game bowled during the season. The in-school programs are administered by YABA and the National Bowling Council (NBC) to increase the interest of young people in the sport of bowling.

Penny Pal contributions are maintained in a separate bank account and are used solely to support the in-school programs. Included in the July 31, 1990 cash balance is $100,099 of Penny Pal contributions which have not yet been distributed to NBC.

Note 6. Retirement Plans

WIBC has a qualified noncontributory defined benefit pension plan covering substantially all employees. The plan provides benefits based on an employee's years of service and compensation during his sixty highest paid consecutive months prior to leaving employment. The Company's funding policy is to contribute the minimum amount as required by applicable laws and regulations.

Plan assets are primarily invested in bank common trust funds, U.S. government obligations and stock and bonds of publicly held companies.

Net periodic pension cost includes the following components:

| | 1990 | 1989 |
|---|---|---|
| Service cost-benefits earned during year | $130,047 | 106,444 |
| Interest cost on projected benefit obligations | 210,977 | 190,517 |
| Actual return on plan assets | (219,135) | (426,015) |
| Net amortization and deferral | (67,289) | 146,895 |
| Net periodic pension cost | 54,600 | 17,841 |

The following table sets forth the plan's funded status and amounts recognized in the Company's balance sheet at July 31:

| | 1990 | 1989 |
|---|---|---|
| Actuarial present value of benefit obligations: | | |
| Vested benefit obligation | $2,594,723 | 2,225,621 |
| Accumulated benefit obligation | $2,654,706 | 2,372,710 |
| Projected benefit obligation | $2,978,004 | 2,711,835 |
| Plan assets at fair value | 3,206,353 | 3,136,088 |
| Excess of plan assets over projected benefit obligation | 228,349 | 424,253 |
| Unrecognized net asset at transition | (667,566) | (723,196) |
| Unrecognized net (gain) loss | (112,533) | (212,330) |
| Unrecognized prior service cost | 213,260 | 227,383 |
| Pension liability recognized in balance sheet | $(338,490) | (283,890) |

Effective August 1, 1989, the plan has been amended to incorporate the new social security integration regulations. This change caused an increase in the projected benefit obligation of $227,383.

Assumptions used to develop the 1990 and 1989 pension information were:

|---|---|
| Discount rate | 8% |
| Expected long-term rate of return on assets | 8% |
| Rate of increase in compensation levels | 5% |

As a result of the plan amendment previously mentioned, the Company entered into agreements with two employees during April, 1990 to provide for retirement benefits lost under the new formula. In addition to the pension costs previously referred to, the Company recognized in 1990 $15,543 as the costs related to these agreements. This amount is included in retirement plan liability.

WIBC has a salary deferral plan which allows employees to contribute a portion of their salary into a trust account maintained by Lincoln National Life Insurance Company. The plan complies with Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. There is no employer contribution under the plan.

Note 7. Commitments

WIBC and ABC have agreed to guarantee the continued operation of the NBHF/M through 1994.
